Tour of homes for sale set for Aug. 22

Posted: July 9, 2009 to jsonline.com

Layton Boulevard West Neighbors Inc. is hosting a tour of homes for sale in their feature neighborhoods on Saturday, Aug. 22, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Pickup and drop-off will take place at Arlington Heights Park, 3429 W. Pierce Street, and refreshments and pastries will be served at Mekatos Colombian Restaurant prior to the tour.

This guided bus tour of homes for sale will take participants through eight homes in the neighborhood. Booklets that contain the listing information on all the homes for sale also will be provided.

The Layton Boulevard West neighborhoods feature Arts and Crafts bungalows, Victorian worker's cottages, brick Colonials and houses designed by Frank Lloyd Wright. These turn-of-the-century homes feature German craftsmanship, unique architectural detail, original woodwork and stained-glass windows.

The tour is free, but registration is requested. To register, call 414-383-8831. After the tour, participants can visit Silver City's Asian Fest, which will be occurring, between 35th and 38th streets on National Ave., close to the tour's drop-off point. With attendance on the tour, participants will get a free egg roll at Thai Lotus, one Asian Fest's vendors.
